

Cycling the City of Vancouver

This map is intended to help you find the best bicycling routes in the City of Vancouver and Clark County. Always remember that traffic and roadway conditions can vary by time of day and time of week, and even by the time of year. We hope that this map will provide you a resource that can help you find safe and fun bicycling routes in our community.

This map has been prepared by the City of Vancouver and Clark County. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this document. The depicted bicycle information is advisory only. Users of this map assume all risks and agree that they bear full responsibility for his or her safety.